Coming Consistory Suddenly Decided on by the Pope and Merry del Val -Blow Aimed at Rampolla Perhaps Some Factors Hostile to Ireland's Hopes.

ROME, Nov. 4.- The elevation to the Cardinalate costs in hats, rings and tips, regulated by a fixed tariff, no less than $16,000, which their Eminences usually are obliged to borrow and pay back in instalments out of their salaries if Curia Cardinals $200 a month besides perquisites or out of their episcopal revenues if they are diocesan Bishops.

The forthcoming consistory was decided upon suddenly. The Pope held a secret conference with Cardinals Merry secret conference with Cardinals Merry del Val, Vives y Tuto and De Lai on Saiurday afternoon, October 28, and a few hours later the Osservatore Romano published the list of the new Cardinals and announced the date of the consistory.

"There must thus in each instance be an application by a carrier, and a special case which entitles the carrier to relief, whatever that may mean, must be set up and made out. And this fixes the limits of the commission's authority.

"The authority assumed by the commission here is not to be implied from the right to prescribe the extent to which from time to time the carrier may be relieved, in the words of the statute. This refers to the special case in each instance which the carrier is required to make out in order to get the approval of the commission and is necessarily confined to it In this respect the phraseology of the sec tion is not changed, and it never by any previous construction was carried outside of this, nor is there anything now which requires it.

"It may be that the applications made by the carriers here for the approval newspapers containing despatches from Ottawa about the annual refusal of the statute. But if that was the case the Consuls-General to attend the drawing proper course to pursue was to throw them out upon that ground.
